Author: Olivia Total Time: 15-17 minutes Yield: Serves 2-4 1x

These little bites of joy are not just easy to make; they're also incredibly satisfying. Imagine the crispy, cheesy goodness melting in your mouth, with a hint of pepperoni adding that perfect savory kick. It's like having a mini pizza party right in your own home, and the best part? You can whip them up in just a few minutes!

INGREDIENTS

- 1 cup shredded cheese (mozzarella recommended)
- 1/2 cup pepperoni slices
- Optional: Italian seasoning, crushed red pepper flakes, Parmesan cheese

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preheat the oven to 400°F (200°C).
2. Grate the cheese and place small mounds on a lined baking sheet, flattening them slightly.
3. Add a slice of pepperoni on top of each cheese mound.
4. Bake for 5-7 minutes until edges are golden and crispy.
5. Let cool slightly before serving.

NOTES

Use high-quality cheese for the best flavor.
Check the chips around the 5-minute mark to avoid burning.
Store leftovers in an airtight container, but enjoy fresh for the best taste.
